

“One Methodology – Many Methods: How to Chart Transnational Fields”

Workshop II

DFG-network on “Political Sociology of Transnational Fields”

Institut für Soziologie, Konradstr.6, R308

Wednesday, 25th October 2017

18.15-19.45 European Elite as Field(s)
Frédéric Lebaron (LMU Hauptgebäude A016)

20.00 Drinks & Food
Venue: Schall & Rauch
Schellingstraße 22, 80799 München

Thursday, 27th October 2017

9.00-10.30 Doing Ethnography: The Challenges of “the International”
Rebecca Adler-Nissen

10.45-13.00 Carriers of Transnationalism
Transnational Habitus
Christian Schneikert

The Oxford-Dispositif
Julian Hamann/Jens Maeße

"Making a career in Europe? A biographical perspective on transnational occupational fields"
Sören Carlson

13.00-14.30 Lunch
Venue: L'Osteria
Leopoldstrasse 28A, 80802 München

14.30-16.00 Methods for the Analysis of Transnational Fields
Using discourse networks as measurements of transnational fields.
Tim Henrichsen/Sabrina Zajak

Varieties of analytical nationalism. Applying multiple factor analysis on discipline specific data

Andreas Schmitz

16.30-18.00

Network Member Session

Things to do in time to come...

19.30

Dinner

Venue: Alter Simpl

Türkenstrasse 58, 80799 München

Friday, 28th October 2017

9.00-10.30

Structural Variation in Transnational Fields: The case of environmental conservation

Monika Krause

11.00-12.30

Studying European Policy Fields

Europe's future in crisis: Mapping the European discursive field and its dynamics via analysis of National Reform Programs

Lisa Suckert

How to chart the nomos, actors and interests in the transnational field of european consumer policy? Some preliminary thoughts

Sebastian Nessel

12.30-13.30

Lunch

Finger food & drinks in Room 112

13.30-15.00

Reflecting on Transnational Fields

Political Sociology in Practice: Reflections against a mainstream notion of “the transnational”

Vincent Gengnagel

Multipositionality, multivocality, multiplexity - A theoretical perspective on mapping relations between multiple fields

Oliver Wieczorek