

3rd Workshop of the DFG-network on “Political sociology of transnational fields”

“Analysing transnationalism from a field perspective”

Max-Planck-Institut für Gesellschaftsforschung, Köln

Wednesday, 20th June 2018

- 15.30-16.00            Welcome address
- 16.00-17.30            The global education-industrial complex: OECD, McKinsey, Gates, Pearson & Co. Richard Münch (Otto-Friedrich-Universität Bamberg)
- 17.30-18.00            Talk over snacks
- 18.00-18.45            Academic consecration in transnational fields Julian Hamann (Forum Internationale Wissenschaft Bonn) and Christian Schmidt-Wellenburg (Universität Potsdam)
- 18.45-19.30            Tracing ‘the transnational’ in the nationalisation of standards-based education policy Sigrid Hartong (Helmut Schmidt Universität Hamburg)
- 19.45                    Drinks Zum alten Brauhaus, Severinstraße 51

Thursday, 21st June 2018

- 9.15-10.45            Theorizing global fields with and post Bourdieu: The case of contemporary visual art Larissa Buchholz (Northwestern University)
- 10.45-11.15            Coffee break
- 11.15-12.00            From the national to the global field of power: What field analysis could (and should) learn from world society theory Daniel Witte (Käte Hamburger Kolleg „Recht als Kultur“) and Andreas Schmitz (Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn)
- 12.00-12.45            Transnational habitus? Analysing configurations of dispositions and capital beyond the nation-state Sören Carlson (Europa-Universität Flensburg) and Christian Schneickert (Otto-von-Guericke-Universität Magdeburg)
- 12.45-13.45            Light lunch

- 13.45-15.15            Transnational guilds of management of sensitive information: A reformulation of ‘national’ security Didier Bigo (King’s College London and Science-Po Paris)
- 15.15-15.45            Coffee break
- 15.45-16.30            The Greek crisis dispositif: Discursive positioning strategies in European trans-epistemic fields Jens Maeße (Justus-Liebig-Universität Giessen)
- 16.30-17.15            The rise of a European field of evidence-based education Tomas Martilla (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München)
- 19.00                    Dinner Comedia Wagenhalle, Vondelstraße 4

Friday, 22nd June 2018

- 9.15-10.45            The making of transnational categories of social policy: remarks from the case of the EEC social policy Karim Fertikh (SAGE Université de Strasbourg)
- 10.45-11.30            Struggling for the future in the face of crisis: EU contestation of imaginaries of a ‘good economic future’ Lisa Suckert (Max-Planck-Institut für Gesellschaftsforschung, Köln)
- 11.45-12.30            Light lunch
- 12.30-14.00            Mapping Eurocracy: historical developments, socio-political struggles, and the changing face of Eurocrats Didier Georgakakis (Université Paris I – Panthéon-Sorbonne)
- 14.00-14.45            Discussion

If you would like to participate, please register with Lisa Suckert until 20th of May 2018 at ls@mpifg.de

Coordination: Dr. Christian Schmidt-Wellenburg (Universität Potsdam) and Dr. Stefan Bernhard (IAB)
Local organizer: Dr. Lisa Suckert (MPIfG)