

Suggestions for your motivation letter

Motivation letters are individual responses to the question of why you would like to study with us. They are usually about 2–3 pages in length.

In drafting them, we suggest that you provide information on:

- how your previous academic studies (particularly your BA thesis) relate to the degree program;
- how the program's scope and focuses would benefit you in terms of your research interests;
- your post-graduation plans.