

EMBODIED HISTORIES

CULTURAL HISTORY OF, IN, AND THROUGH THE HUMAN BODY

16th Annual Conference of the International Society for Cultural History

04.–06. SEPTEMBER 2024

UNIVERSITY OF POTSDAM

KEYNOTE LECTURES (ROOM 1.08.1.45 - AUDIMAX):

Montserrat Cabré i Pairet (Universidad de Cantabria): The 'Women's Question': Gendered Experiences and Women's Thinking on the Body in the Renaissance
Wednesday, September 4, 9:00–10:45

Christian Laes (The University of Manchester): Disabilities and the Disabled in the Ancient World. A Social and Cultural History
Wednesday, September 4, 16:45–18:30

Änne Söll (Ruhr Universität Bochum): Bodies/Sex/Folklore: Graffiti as Intimate Ethnology in 1920s and 1930s Avantgarde Art
Thursday, September 5, 14:30–16:15

Christopher Forth (The University of Kansas): Revolts Against the Modern World: Masculinity, Modernity, and Far-Right Body Politics
Friday, September 6, 14:30–16:15

And beyond the keynote lectures, do not miss the almost 60 panels, with over 200 papers, our social events – nor our publishers' room!

The complete programme can be found here:

© 2024 Universität Potsdam, ZIM | Multimedia | Grafik, Foto: Karla Fritze