Funding of Tunisian-German research projects (TUNGER 2+2)
8 May 2020
On the basis of the 1998 Agreement for scientific and technological cooperation with the Republic of Tunisia, cooperation in the fields of research, technology and innovation will be developed. The aim of this directive is to promote innovative German-Tunisian collaborative projects in applied research on selected priority topics. Specifically, it is to promote cooperation between German and Tunisian representatives from science and industry in the form of "2+2 projects". Funding for the joint collaborative projects is provided by the BMBF for the German project partners and by the Tunisian Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research (MoHESR) for the Tunisian project partners.

Ten scholarships for the 2021/22 academic year in China
15 May 2020
The German National Academic Foundation, in cooperation with the Alfried Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach Foundation, is awarding ten scholarships for a stay in China for the academic year 2021/22. The application deadline for the 34th year was extended to 15 May 2020. The China Scholarship Programme enables students to spend one year in the People's Republic of China for language, study and practical training, starting in September 2021. The financial support includes a monthly scholarship of 1,000 euros as well as preparation and travel allowances. The China Scholarship Council pays the tuition fees in China.

Call for applications PROCOPE 2021: Mobility grants for research stays in France
29 June 2020
Mobility grant to France for doctoral students, post-doctoral students and young researchers within the framework of a Procope-Program.
The aim of PROCOPE (Partenariat Hubert Curien franco-allemand) is to initiate or intensify partnership research activities between a German and a foreign university and/or research institution in order to strengthen academic relations. It is a cooperation between the French Ministry of Science (MESRI) and the German BMBF. The mobility grant enables the funding of a stay of up to two years. Beneficiaries of the programme receive a daily allowance of 125 euros and reimbursement of travel expenses.

Internationalisation of teacher education
6 July 2020
This programme is intended to make a sustainable contribution to a stronger international orientation of teacher education by increasing the international mobility of teachers and students as well as institutionalised international university cooperation. The programme finances scholarships for individual students, model projects for internationalising teacher education at German universities, as well as information, advice and supervision measures. It aims to support efficient and globally minded universities and promote interculturally oriented education at schools in Germany.
