Programme of project-related exchanges with different countries

30 June 2020

The focus is on the initiation or intensification of partnership-based research activities between a German and non-German university and/or research institution to strengthen academic relations. Particular importance is attached to the qualification of young academics. The programme promotes mobility and short-term stays for the exchange of project participants from the participating partner institutions, especially young academics, for research visits. Funding is available for graduates, doctoral students, postdocs, post-doctoral researchers, university lecturers, unless otherwise agreed with the foreign partner.

German-Arab short courses with partner universities in Tunisia, Morocco, Libya, Jordan, Yemen, Lebanon or Iraq

30 June 2020

The aim of the programme is to establish and intensify academic contacts between German universities and universities from the target countries in order to establish longer-term cooperation measures and make active contributions to structural development at the partner universities and to improving research and teaching as well as the democratic (self-) administration of the universities (good governance). Funding can be provided for short measures/events in the target countries or similar events in Germany with Arab participants primarily from the main target countries as well as research, teaching and study visits that are connected with a short measure.

Subject-related partnerships with universities in developing countries

30 June 2020

The aim is to improve and expand teaching in the partner countries, as well as structure formation and capacity development at the partner university. University cooperations for curriculum or module development, the establishment of international study programmes and the mutual recognition of university degrees are being funded. The funding is primarily intended for the partnership-related exchange of university teachers, staff from the middle management, graduates (e.g. doctoral students) and students from Germany and the partner countries.

University dialogue with Southern Europe

2 July 2020

The aim of the programme is to promote the socio-political dialogue with a topical reference between the southern European countries - Greece, Italy, Portugal, Spain and Cyprus - and Germany. Funding is provided for events, specialist conferences and/or summer schools (specialist courses, block seminars, workshops), trips and stays of participants as well as the publication of the event results. Students, graduates, doctoral candidates, young scientists, academics, professors from the target countries and Germany are being funded.
