University of Potsdam, Germany

Conference August 27rd – 29th, 2020

We are very pleased to announce the third Cultural Diversity, Migration, and Education conference! The theme this year is “Social Belonging and Cohesion in Multicultural Schools and Societies”. We are looking forward to another engaging three days of exchange between researchers and practitioners from the fields of education, psychology, sociology, and related disciplines.

The invited Keynote Lectures will be held by:

- Claude Steele (Stanford University, USA)
- Naika Foroutan (Humboldt University and Berlin Institute for Empirical Integration and Migration Research, Germany)
- Sandra Graham (University of California at Los Angeles, USA)
- Maurice Crul (University of Amsterdam, Netherlands)
- Niobe Way, (New York University, USA)

Spotlight Topic Speakers: Martyn Barrett (University of Surrey, UK), Karen Phalet (Leuven University, Belgium), Hans Anand Pant, (Humboldt University, Germany) Onnie Rogers, (Northwestern University, USA), Ylva Svensson (University West and Gothenburg University, Sweden), Mohini Lokhande (Expert Council of German Foundations on Integration and Migration, Germany)

A call for papers and the conference website will be available in early 2020. If you have further questions, please feel free to contact Linda Juang at juang@uni-potsdam.de, or Maja Schachner at maja.schachner@uni-potsdam.de or the CDME team at diversity@uni-potsdam.de.
