Buenos Aires Holocaust Museum

About

The Buenos Aires Shoah Museum, the only of its kind in Latin America, serves as a museum, memorial and moral reminder by telling the story of the Holocaust and its impact in Argentina and wider South America. The museum is supported through the Holocaust Memorial Foundation and was declared a 'Site of Cultural Interest' by the city of Buenos Aires in 2006.

Activities

Permanent exhibition. It also hosts temporary exhibits from around the world of high educational and reflexive value. The Museum addresses young people, educators, researchers and communicators aiming at creating an awareness of the consequences of racism and xenophobia, at teaching respect to the one who is different. It honors the Shoah victims with remembrance and the survivors with the continuity of the transmission.

Philosophy

Under the slogan, 'To remember is to avoid repeating history' the foundation's mission is to keep the memory of the Holocaust present, honor those lost and to serve as a poignant reminder of the atrocities that can stem from racism and xenophobia. Each display attempts to exercise memory in a way that will make transmission easier, by using texts, objects and testimonial documents, so that its knowledge will help preventing sinister racist resurgence and neo Nazi demonstrations. It is a living testimony of history and calls upon homage and remembrance, to help the knowledge of the historic reality and to strengthen societys' democratic and pluralistic convictions.
