

WHAT CAN POSTCOLONIAL STUDIES DO?

LECTURE SERIES

open to students and the public

Organized by:

Prof. Dr. Marcia Schenck

Prof. Dr. Katharina Wesselmann

14.10. Introduction

21.10. Nandini Pandey (online)

(Self-imposed?) Epistemic Injustice and the Making of a Disciplinary Subject

28.10. Aram Ziai (online)

Conflicts over Antisemitism and Postcolonial Studies in Germany

04.11. Cassandra Mark-Thiesen (online)

A Postcolonial Revisiting of Immediate Post-Independence History Journals from Africa

11.11. Svitlana Biedarieva (online)

Ambicoloniality and War: On Ukrainian Resistance and Russian Colonialism

18.11. Robert Heinze

Between Nationalism and Universalism: Decolonisation, African History and Postcolonial Studies

25.11. Botakoz Kassymbekova (online)

Russian Colonialism or How to Overlook an Empire

02.12. Francesca Aiuti

Introduction to ERC Starting Grant Project Afroeuropa & Cyberspace

09.12. Elena Giusti (online)

Postcolonial Theory and Roman Representations of Africa

16.12. Katharina Oke

The Press and the Politics of the Public Sphere: a Perspective on Print Culture in Colonial Lagos, 1890s-1940s

06.01. Richard Hölzl (online)

Historicising Ethnological Museums from Within? Impact and Limitations of Postcolonial Provenance Research

13.01. Philip van der Eijk

The Study of Graeco-Roman Medicine, Philosophy and Science from a Postcolonial Perspective

20.01. Saskia Schomber

Changing Classics: Postcolonialism and the Unraveling of Academic Tradition

27.01/ 03.02. Final Sessions

TUESDAYS: 16:00h- 18:00h

ROOM: 1.09.1.12

ZOOM-MEETING-ID: 641 9961 1075

PASSWORD: 26690660

CONTACT: globalgeschichte@uni-potsdam.de

LINK TO ZOOM-MEETING

