

International Review of Administrative Sciences
Volume 82 Number 2 March 2016

Special issue on Restructuring public functions in multi-level-systems: For better or for worse?

Guest Editors: Sabine Kuhlmann and Ellen Wayenberg

Institutional Impact Assessment in Multi-Level-Systems:
Conceptualizing Decentralization Effects from a Comparative Perspective
Sabine Kuhlmann and Ellen Wayenberg

Decentralisation of the French welfare state: From “Big Bang” to “Muddling Through”
Renate Reiner and Sabine Kuhlmann

Is it the twilight of Decentralization? Testing the limits of functional reforms in the era of austerity
Nikolaos-Komninos Hlepas

Decentralizing for Performance? A quantitative assessment of Functional Reforms in the German Länder
Falk Ebinger and Philipp Richter

In wealth and in poverty?” The changing role of Spanish municipalities in implementing childcare policies
Carmen Navarro and Francisco Velasco

Is centralisation the right way to go? The case of internal security policy reforms in Switzerland in the light of community policing
Caroline Jacot-Descombes and Julien Niklaus

Planning in England: New Public Management, Network Governance or Post-Democracy?
Martin Laffin