

YERUN Research Mobility Award

*Racism, sexism, fascism -
What duties do citizens have to counter unjust attitudes and behaviours in everyday life?*

University of Potsdam, Campus Griebnitzsee, House 1, Room 2.31

Friday June 20th

9:30 – 10:30 Ibrahim Orha:

On Civic Relational Equality: Do Citizens Have Egalitarian Duties Against Discriminatory Attitudes, Actions, and Expressions?

15 min coffee break

10:45 – 11:45 Felix Werfel:

What duties do citizens have to counter unjust attitudes and behaviours in everyday life?

15 min coffee break

12:00 – 13:00 Riley Lewicki:

Trans as an International Cosmopolitan People Against Fascist Ultra Nationalism

LUNCH

14:30 – 15:30 Milo Poertzgen:

Privileged Individuals' Duties in Relation to Structural Injustice

15 min coffee break

15:45 – 16:45 Samboyang Ceesay:

On the duty to be anti-racist after Hanau

15 min coffee break

17:00 – 18:15 René Bünnagel:

Rethinking Discrimination – The Danger of a Neutralized Conception

The workshop is kindly supported by a YERUN Research Mobility Award