

Table of Contents

---

Oliver Krämer & Isolde Malmberg Introduction	7
Christian Thorau Casually or Carefully: Music Listening Then and Now	17
I. LISTENING THROUGHOUT LIFE: Music and Its Meaning for Identity and Biography
Renate Müller (Germany) Young People's Musical Commitment: Music Sociological Perspectives	29
Anna Houmann (Sweden) Working on the Musical Biography: Bringing Story into Music Education	49
Ka Man Melody Ng (USA) Listening to Live Music in a Healthcare Environment	63
Rineke Smilde (The Netherlands) Reading, Mirroring, and Reflecting an Audience Living with Dementia	79
Hande Sağlam (Austria/Turkey) Musical Code-Switching: Understanding, Learning, and Transmitting Other Musical Languages Using a Transcultural Approach	91
II. LISTENING IN CHILDHOOD: Musical Experience and Preferences
Silke Schmid (Switzerland) Children's Multimodal Dimensions of Music Experience: An Open Framework	105

Vanessa Bond (USA) A Pedagogy of Listening: Applications for Music Education	121
Ingeborg Lunde Vestad (Norway) Passing on Musical Knowledge and Ideas about Music through Television: The Norwegian Children's Programmes Lekestue and Sesam Stasjon	135
Veronika Busch, Nicola Bunte, & Michael Schurig (Germany) Open-Earedness, Musical Concepts, and Gender Identity	151
III. LISTENING AND UNDERSTANDING: Music and the Allocation of Meaning
Jo Stijnen (Belgium) The Construction of Meaning in the Process of Listening to and Understanding Music	169
Stephan Hametner (Austria) The Art and Freedom of Interpretation: A Didactic Discussion of How to Foster Listening and Interpreting Music	187
David Holland (United Kingdom) Heightened Listening: A Creative Tool for Opening Ears and Minds to Sound-Based Music	201
IV. LISTENING IN MUSIC EDUCATION: Conceptual Approaches and Applications
Oliver Krämer (Germany) Conceptual Approaches to Listening and Understanding in German Music Education	221
David Holland (United Kingdom) Acoustic Ecology and Its Role in Education: Learning to Listen to the Soundscape	241
Rainer O. Brinkmann (Germany) Dramatic Interpretation of Music	255

Franz Niermann (Austria)
Guiding to Openness:
A Music Didactic Principle, Developed in die kunst der stunde 271

Tobias Hömberg & Oliver Krämer (Germany)
Listening and Understanding Music from a Curricular Perspective 289

V. LISTENING IN CONCERTS:

Understanding and Appreciating Classical Music

Constanze Wimmer (Austria)
Opening Doors to Classical Music:
In Search of an Inquisitive Audience 307

Andreas Bernhofer (Austria)
Young People Experiencing Classical Concerts 323

The Editors 337

The Authors 338