Information on Application for Proofreading

for members of the Potsdam Graduate School / Postdocs

Status: May 2020

The Potsdam Graduate School (PoGS) provides subsidies for proofreading to temporary employed postdocs, juniorprofessors or newly appointed professors at the University of Potsdam. Thus, the result of their own research can be ensured and made accessible to the scientific audience.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

There is no application deadline. You can submit your application for proofreading any time. The PoGS will answer your request as soon as possible in consideration of the submission date.

CONDITIONS FOR SUBSIDY

1. Membership in the Potsdam Graduate School.
2. Paper to be published in a scientific journal, conference presentation or similar.
3. Obligation to report: You have to hand in a short, informal report to your publication no later than four weeks after the termination of funding via email to: pogs@uni-potsdam.de.

NECESSARY DOCUMENTS FOR RECEIVING A SUBSIDY

There are no additional documents required. As soon as the application has been considered, you will receive a notification and contact details of the language coach. All further procedures have to be discussed with her. Please send your English publication directly to the language coach.

You can find all necessary forms here:
