

INFORMATION ON APPLICATIONS FOR PUBLICATION COST SUBSIDIES

for members of the Potsdam Graduate School • Postdocs (Status: August 2022)

The Potsdam Graduate School (PoGS) provides subsidies for publications to temporary employed postdocs, junior professors or newly appointed professors of the University of Potsdam. This ensures that the results of their research can be made accessible to a scientific audience.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

There is no application deadline. You can submit your application for a publication costs subsidy at any time, but it has to be prior to the publication date.

The PoGS will answer requests as soon as possible in the order they are received.

CONDITIONS FOR SUBSIDY

- 1) Membership in the Potsdam Graduate School.
- 2) You can apply for a publication costs subsidy for peer-reviewed articles and papers or photographic or colored figures of your own research. Subsidies can be granted for print publications that have to be available on the book market as well as online publications.
- 3) Please note: The publication or invoicing has to take place within one year after your application has been approved. If this deadline has expired, you need to submit a new application.
- 4) Dissertation-related publications can only be funded through the doctoral student funding program, NOT the postdoc funding program.
- 5) Obligation to report: You must hand in a short, informal report and a link to your publication or a similar proof via email to the PoGS no later than four weeks after the termination of the (pogs@uni-potsdam.de).

THIRD-PARTY AND PROJECT FUNDS

If your publication is financed by third-party or project funds (e.g. DFG), a subsidy from the PoGS is not possible afterwards. A grant from the Potsdam Graduate School represents additional internal funding, which would reduce the original grant from the funding agency. This fact would have to be reported to the funding agency. Please also note the guidelines of the respective funding agency. In individual cases, please contact us before submitting your application.

SETTLEMENTS OF ACCOUNTS

As soon as your application is considered, you will receive information on the terms of use and details on settling the account. Please note that the settlement of accounts is effected by your faculty/institute/professorship. All necessary documents must first be handed in there (not to the Potsdam Graduate School). Please contact your responsible head of administration in this regard.
