

A Working Conference
for Humboldt Studies

ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT AND THE HEMISPHERE

JANUARY 15-17, 2009

KEYNOTE: January 15

7pm, Reception, Buttrick Atrium

8pm, Keynote Address, Buttrick 102

Ottmar Ete, Potsdam University

"TransTropics: Alexander von Humboldt's constructions of the American Hemisphere"

PANELS: January 16 and 17

9am to 6pm, Room 220 Sarratt Student Center

EVENT INFO

Kenneth Andrien, Ohio State

Anja Becker, Vanderbilt

Christiana Borchart de Moreno,
Quito, Ecuador

Laura Dassow Walls,
University of South Carolina

Michael Dettelbach,
Boston University

Ottmar Ete, University of Potsdam

Christopher Iannini, Rutgers

Tobias Kraft, University of Potsdam

Vera Kutzinski, Vanderbilt

Katherine Manthorne,
CUNY Graduate Center

Kent Mathewson, LSU

John Ochoa,
Pennsylvania State University

Neil Safier,
University of British Columbia

Suzanne Zeller, Laurier

Michael Zeuske,
University of Cologne

PARTICIPANTS

DETAILS

Free and open to the public

Conference programs are available in the CFA office at 150 Buttrick Hall.

For more information:
email Giorleny Altamirano at g.altamirano@vanderbilt.edu

SPONSORS

Alexander von Humboldt
Stiftung/Foundation

GERDA HENKEL STIFTUNG

Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany
Department of Germanic and Slavic Languages at Vanderbilt Department of History at Vanderbilt
Department of English at Vanderbilt

Center for the AMERICAS
AT VANDERBILT

TOWARD

A BETTER HEMISPHERE

