

Are you a talented, ambitious and creative researcher at a host institution in Brandenburg? Do you think about an application for an ERC grant? Are you wondering if your project idea is “ERC-material” and what challenges you might face?

Then this workshop is for you.

An expert from the NCP ERC in Germany will provide an informative overview of the various ERC funding schemes and calls. In the afternoon, two successful ERC grantees will share their experiences with the application process, evaluation and project implementation. Throughout the sessions, there will be ample opportunity for questions, discussions, and networking.
