*Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU)
and German Council of Economic Experts*

Moderator: Prof. Dr. Matthias Kalkuhl
MCC Berlin and CEPA, University of Potsdam

About the Speaker

Veronika Grimm studied economics and sociology in Hamburg and Kiel and holds a PhD in economics (Humboldt University). Since 2008, she has been Professor of Economic Theory at Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU). Since 2020, Prof. Grimm is member of the influential council of economic experts (“Wirtschaftsweisen”).

About the Policy Lecture

Economics provides tools and methods for analyzing and evaluating policy measures that focus on important social, political and economic problems. Still, there is often a perceived gap between academic analyses and the political reality. The Policy Lecture therefore seeks to bring together high-level policymakers and policy advisors with researchers and advanced students in the field of economic and environmental policy.

Audience

The Policy Lecture is open to all students, PhD Students and researchers at the University of Potsdam and our partner institutions in the Potsdam-Berlin area (MCC Berlin, PIK, DIW, BSE). Students from the EPQM Master are particularly welcome to join.
