

#CEPAPolicyLecture No. 6

Ökonomischen Konsequenzen der Coronavirus-Pandemie (in German)

Date: 2 February 2022 | 17:00–18:00

Speaker: Prof. Dr. Regina Riphahn
Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU) and Vice President of the National Academy of Sciences (Leopoldina)

Moderator: Prof. Dr. Matthias Kalkuhl
MCC Berlin and CEPA, University of Potsdam

About the Speaker

Regina Riphahn studied in Cologne, Bonn, Sussex (UK), Tennessee (USA), and North Carolina (USA), habilitated in 1999 in Munich. She was a tenured associate professor at the University of Mainz and Basel (Switzerland) and holds the Chair of Empirical Economics at the FAU since 2005. Since 2021, she is chair of the German Economic Association (“Verein für Socialpolitik”).

About the Policy Lecture

Economics provides tools and methods for analyzing and evaluating policy measures that focus on important social, political and economic problems. Still, there is often a perceived gap between academic analyses and the political reality. The Policy Lecture therefore seeks to bring together high-level policymakers and policy advisors with researchers and advanced students in the field of economic and environmental policy.

Audience

The Policy Lecture is open to all students, PhD Students and researchers at the University of Potsdam and our partner institutions in the Potsdam-Berlin area (MCC Berlin, PIK, DIW, BSE). Students from the EPQM Master are particularly welcome to join.

Registration

www.uni-potsdam.de/en/cepa/events/policy-lectures

Contact

Stephanie Massar | info-cepa@uni-potsdam.de